

Events in Gaeta. The Recipe for an Unforgettable Vacation

The predictions that foresaw a summer marked by fear and immobility have been completely overturned: Gaeta remains one of the most popular and appreciated destinations in Lazio for Italian and international tourists. With events, sea, and trekking, Gaeta does not disappoint its admirers this year either and offers many opportunities for fun and entertainment.

What to Do in Gaeta: Boat Trips and Trekking to Discover the City's Natural Wonders

The Pearl of the Tyrrhenian offers unforgettable moments to spend immersed in nature, both for sea lovers and for those fond of walks in the greenery.

Those who wish to be lulled by the crystal-clear waters of the sea, in complete relaxation, can choose from numerous mini-cruises, discovering the most suggestive coves of Gaeta and Sperlonga. Welcoming boats will take you on a private tour to discover the fascinating natural inlets of our coasts and the legends surrounding the history of the city.

In addition to admiring the wonders of Serapo and the Montagna Spaccata from an "exceptional perspective, you can also move towards Sperlonga, Ponza and Palmarola for a trip focused on beauty."

Those who prefer to immerse themselves in the lush green scenery that Gaeta offers can opt for long walks on Monte Orlando where it is possible to rediscover traces of a centuries-old past, as well as admire a magnificent panorama.

Gaeta Nightlife. The Events not to be Missed and the most Popular Places in the City

The confirmation arrived a few days ago: the Arena Virgilio returns in August among the events in Gaeta to cheer up summer evenings with its artists, singers, and comedians. As every year, the Arena's stage will host big names from the Italian artistic panorama with six music and cabaret shows.

Events in Gaeta

Opening the festival on August 16 is Vincenzo Salemme who, with his distinctive humor, brings his show to the stage Napoletano? E famme 'na pizza. A witty representation of stereotypes and common places that revolve around the figure of the Neapolitan. The show continues on August 18 with Gigi Finizio, another representative of the Neapolitan artistic and singing panorama, with a concert that bears the name of his new song Vieneme a truva'.

August 19 is the evening of fun with Paolo Caiazzo dealing with today's society in the show Non mi chiamo Tonino. In the hilarious monologue, he narrates some events of his career in an ironic key. Taking over the stage is Peppe Iodice with his show Una sera all'improvviso, a recital in which the artist brings to life a monologue with many guests and sketches.

On August 20 and 21, it's music's turn again with Mogol and Gianmarco Carroccia who bring their project Emozioni to the stage, a musical biography of Lucio Battisti. The next day it's the turn of two young singers from the Neapolitan rap scene, Ivan Granatino and BL4IR with Caramella the concert. The six-day event closes with Biagio Izzo in Un angelo per custode.

In addition to the events, Gaeta offers a nightlife full of entertainment. The small village of old Gaeta comes alive with its small restaurants where you can savor the traditional flavors of Gaetan cuisine, with pubs and venues where you can listen to music and gather – in this case respecting the anti-Covid regulations -.
